

Amy Luedemann-Lazar

August 13, 2017

Dr. Amy Luedemann-Lazar opened Kidstown Dental in Katy in July 2012. She is passionate about laser dentistry, minimally invasive, painless dentistry and is very conscious about materials in children's mouth. Her office is latex free, BPA free, gluten free and mercury free. Dr. Amy's current passion is infant feeding issues and myofunctional therapy (which often starts as early as infancy). She has assembled a highly specialized team for managing tongue and lip tie in a unique, holistic approach.
